Sheriff to Join CHP to Enforce County Traffic

As an important means of reducing traffic accidents and deaths on county streets and roads, the Board of Supervisors this week, on motion of Supervisor Kenneth Hahn decided to sponsor legislation which would give the Sheriff prime responsibility for enforcing traffic laws and regulations in unincorporated areas.

At the present time the State Highway Patrol has responsibility for enforcing all traffic laws in county areas. "Despite the fine job the Highway Patrol is doing, there

SEEK VOLUNTEERS

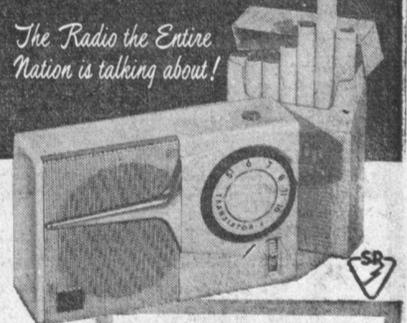

The Blood Procurement Program of the Red Cross is making an appeal for volunteers to work as typists and also canteen workers. Anyone who can spare a few hours a month is asked to call FA 8-0510 or drop in at the Red Cross office, 1437 El Prado.

just isn't sufficient manpower for them to adequately patrol all areas of the county and enforce traffic laws. As a result most of their activities are on the main thoroughfares, and there is little enforcement in residential areas," Supervisor Hahn stated.

He pointed out that the purpose of the proposed legislation was to supplement the enforcement activities of the Highway Patrol.

Burglars Loot Store, Houses

One store and four homes were burglarized over the weekend here.

Biggest haul was from the home of Connie Camrou, 2231 W. 237th St., where thieves took a radio and clothing worth $332, she reported to police.

A cigaret machine and gum machine were pried open by burglars who broke into Johnson's Donut Shop, 23904 Crenshaw Blvd. by crawling through a window. Loss was estimated at approximately $15.

A .22 caliber automatic pistol and ammunition was taken from home of Donald E. Luce, 3209 W. 178th St., while thieves also entered the home of Thomas Brice, 21701 Madrona Ave. Entering the Christmas season, thieves stole two decorative light strings from a bush in front of the home of Robert Restorick, 5039 Hallison St., officers reported.

Steal Yule Trees

Two sailors were arrested on suspicion of burglary by deputy sheriffs Monday night after they allegedly stole two Christmas trees from the triangle lot in the South Bay Shopping Center.

Arrested were Bobby Dean, 22, and William G. Turner, 21, who will be turned over to naval authorities.
